

Biography for Jaishri Mehta

Jaishri Mehta, is a Professor at Mount San Antonio College. Jaishri Mehta teaches Programming in Java, Network Vulnerabilities and Countermeasures in Computer Information Systems department in the Business Division. From October 2003 to September 2007 served as Senior Personnel for the RISSC (Regional Systems Security Center) project funded by the NSF (National Science Foundation). From October 2007 to till now, Jaishri Mehta serves as the PI (Principal Investigator) or the lead to the RISSC project to support workforce, curriculum and professional development in cyber security.