

Harley A.J. (Bucky) Methfessel serves as Senior Counsel for Information and Technology in the Office of the General Counsel (the OGC), US Department of Education. In this role, Mr. Methfessel supports the OGC and the Department in wide variety of information and technology matters including complex litigation involving electronically stored information (ESI). Mr. Methfessel is counsel to the Department's Data Governance Board, serves on the Department's Data Integrity Board and is the Program Records Officer for the OGC. Mr. Methfessel also retains an active TS SCI clearance and provides counsel on various information security matters impacting operations of the Department.

Mr. Methfessel started his career as an associate at McGuire, Woods & Battle in Richmond, Virginia. He has served as corporate general counsel and as an executive for several private and public companies. Recently, Mr. Methfessel worked in the private sector standing up a variety of electronic preservation, analysis and records management programs for government and commercial clients. An active member of the Virginia State Bar, Mr. Methfessel received his B.S. and M.B.A. from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University and his J.D. from the University of Virginia. Mr. Methfessel resides in Clifton, Virginia with his wife, Beth, and their two daughters, Dorin and Alden.