

Patricia Esslinger, Groupware Facilitator

Pat Esslinger is an independent groupware facilitator whose client list features Federal managers. She combines expertise in group facilitation and use of collaborative meeting technology with a background in executive level Federal management, including twenty-five years with the U.S. Office of Personnel Management. Having provided facilitation and GroupSystems technography service in the Washington DC area since 1995, she is a respected contributor and presenter in the community of power users of collaborative meeting technology. Ms. Esslinger received a B.A. cum laude in political science from Vassar College and attended the Federal Executive Institute (FEI) program in Executive Leadership and Management.

Contact Patricia Esslinger, Groupware Facilitator at 301-922-6184 or

Pat@PatEsslinger.com.

See www.PatEsslinger.com