Cyber Security involves careful attention to the overall architecture, hardware and software designs and development, supply chain management, continuous monitoring of trustworthiness, various operational and management policies and tools, and diligence in the user community. Therefore, building a responsible user base and a competent work force requires a multi-faceted education, vocational training, and continuing professional development. Dr. Bharat Doshi will bring his experiences as a researcher, an educator, and an R&D manager to discuss his views on these aspects from different angles.
9:45 am - 10:30 am  Track 1: National Cybersecurity Awareness  The Department of Homeland Security is the agency leading the development and execution of the Campaign, which is aimed at raising awareness about cybersecurity, ultimately increasing the understanding of cyber threats and empowering the American public to be prepared and secure. The Campaign will kick off in October 2010, in conjunction with National Cybersecurity Awareness Month.  Speaker(s): DHS

Presentation
Bruce W. McConnell, Cybersecurity Counselor to Deputy Under Secretary Philip Reitinger
National Protection and Programs Directorate (NPPD)
U.S. Department of Homeland Security

10:30 am - 10:50 am  Break - (Breakout sessions - sign up)

10:50 am - 12:05 pm  Track 2: Formal Cybersecurity Education Overview  The Education team is supporting development of education programs encompassing K-12, higher education, and vocational programs related to cybersecurity. The focus is on the science, technology, engineering, and math disciplines in order to help provide a pipeline of skilled workers for private sector and government.  Speaker(s): DoED, OSTP & Partners

10:50 am - 11:05 pm  Mr. Harley A.J. (Bucky) Methfessel, Senior Counsel for Information and Technology in the Office of the General Counsel (the OGC), US Department of Education.

11:05 am - 12:05 pm  Presentation
Dr. Robert J. Spear, PI and Director, CyberWatch Center, Prince George’s Community College; and
Dr. Davina Pruitt-Mentle Executive Director and senior researcher and policy analyst for Educational Technology Policy, Research and Outreach (ETPRO), and CyberWatch Co-PI for K-12 Programs

Presentation: "How to Share the Wheel" -- we (that is, the United States) do not need to invent the wheel, and should not spend tax dollars reinventing it; rather, we already have the wheel, and now just need to share it, and get schools to use it.

Industry guest panel (ISC2) to present: the CISO survey (report released publicly addressing the major concerns of the Federal CISOs), industry concerns related to cyber workforce, and collaboration goals and objectives.

On the heels of the release of its the second comprehensive survey report of federal Chief Information Security Officers (CISOs), (ISC)² and distinguished panelists from industry and government will discuss how CISOs view the current and future state of agency programs, what they see as the biggest threats and the necessary solutions and what other issues concern them going forward. The panelists will also provide additional insight on how these findings tie into the Administration’s goals for cybersecurity and what they mean for the information security profession and efforts to build a top information security workforce within the federal government.

Introduction: Peggy Maxson, DHS, Director, National Cybersecurity Education Strategy and Co-lead of Track 4.
