

Conference Agenda

March 22, 2005

- 7:30am Registration & Continental Breakfast
- 8:15am Welcome & Administrative Notes
Curtis Carver and William Suchan
United States Military Academy
- 8:25am NIST Welcome
Joan Hash, NIST
- 8:30am Keynote Presentation
US Department of Homeland Security
- 9:30am FISSEA Business Meeting
Louis Numkin, US Nuclear Regulatory Commission and FISSEA Executive Board Chairperson
- 10:00am Break
- Concurrent Sessions:
- 10:30am Writing a Strategic Training Plan
Marirose Coulson, Booz, Allen & Hamilton
A Balancing Act Between Risk Appetite and Risk
Tolerance
Russell "Chip" Lawson, Bindview Corporation
- 11:10am How to Use Statistics in Your Awareness
Program: A Look at the CSI FBI Computer Crime
Survey
Robert Richardson, Computer Security Institute (50min)
The Security Plan: Effectively Teaching How To Write One
Paul Clark, Naval Post Graduate School (25 min)
Writing a Security Plan
Jane Powanda, Mitretek Systems/UI Information Technology
Support Center (25 min)
- 12 noon Lunch
- 1:00pm Concurrent Sessions:
Cyber-Terrorism: A New Definition for a New Reality
Dan Verton, IT Security Magazine

1:00pm	Information Assurance Training – An Essential Part of an Effective Security Strategy Pamela Halpern, Easy i., Inc.
2:00pm	Panel: Where Will the Next Generation of CISOs Come From? (50 min) Jane Scott Norris, Department of State, Facilitator Diana Gant, National Science Foundation James Golden, US Postal Service Louis Magnotti, US House of Representatives Marc Noble, Federal Communications Commission Security is Everyone’s Business: Role-Based Training for the System Development Life Cycle Margaret Spaninger, Booz, Allen & Hamilton (25 min) Meeting FISMA Training Requirements Through Security Awareness and Role-Based Training: An FBI Case Study George Soltys, Karta Technologies (25 min)
2:50pm	Break
3:00pm	Transforming an Organization by Maintaining a Sustainable Security Awareness Training and Education Program Tanetta Isler, FISSEA Spyware Defense Ronald Greenfield, Defense Security Cooperation Agency
3:55pm	General Session: Administrative Notes Curtis Carver, William Suchan, USMA
4:05pm	FISSEA Executive Board Nomination Speeches Louis Numkin, NRC, Facilitator
4:15pm	How a Search Engine Can Be Used as a Reconnaissance Tool By a Potential Attacker Anton Ljusic, Communications Security Establishment
4:40pm	Developing and Implementing a CIRT Team Nan Poulos, Easy i, Inc.
5:05pm	Building Quality into Part-Time Technology Education John Baker, Johns Hopkins University
6:00pm	FISSEA Dinner at local restaurant Host: Louis Numkin (Not included in registration fee, sign up sheet at registration desk)

Conference Agenda

March 23, 2005

- 7:30am Registration & Continental Breakfast
- 8:15am Welcome & Administrative Notes
Curtis Carver and William Suchan
United States Military Academy
- 8:30am Keynote Presentation: Five Ways to Determine if Your Training Program is Reality or Fantasy Island
Tom Walsh, Tom Walsh Consulting
- 9:30am Speak-out Session
Facilitator: Lewis Baskerville, Small Business Administration
(sign up sheet at registration desk)
- 10:00am Break
- Concurrent Sessions:
- 10:30am Tips and Ideas to Help Sell Your Security
Program
Barbara Cuffie, Social Security Administration (Retired)
Why We Need Another Grace Hopper
John Ippolito, Allied Technologies
- 11:10am Breaking the Mold: Fieldwork Approaches
Within an IA Program
Jeff Recor, Walsh College
Security Training and Awareness Materials:
Mich's Grab Bag
Mich Kabay, Norwich University
- 12 noon Lunch (Ballots due after lunch)
- 1:00pm Running the River - Reading and Responding to End Users
K Rudolph, Native Intelligence, Inc.
CyberCEIGE: A Video Game for Information
Assurance Training and Awareness
Cynthia Irvine, Naval Postgraduate School

2:00pm      Advanced Awareness, Training, and Education
(ATE) Techniques
Jim Litchko, Litchko and Associates
Carronade: Making Training Awareness Active and Personal
Aaron Ferguson, United States Military Academy

2:50pm      Break

3:00pm      General Session:
The New NIST Security Standards and Guidelines for FISMA
Ron Ross, NIST

3:50pm      Closing Ceremony
Curtis Carver, William Suchan, USMA
Announcement of FISSEA Awards:
    Educator of the Year
    Poster, Website, and Trinket Contest
Announcement of Newly Elected Board

4:20pm      First Meeting of Executive Board
(open to all members)