To get a full appreciation of the game, you can access it by following this link: %

http://stage.securityawarenessweekchallenge.com/

You may register using any valid e-mail address.

Select ‘Play Now’.
This is the entry page for the SAW Challenge.

Employees register (if it’s their first time playing) or log in.

There is no $1000 prize. Instead we advertise a ‘mystery prize’ valued at much less than $1000.

This screenshot is just for illustration purposes.
The registration page allows the participant to enter an alias which will be shown on the leaderboard. That way privacy is maintained.

It also asks you to select which region of the country you are in, adding a competitive element between regions.

Statistics can tell us which region has the highest percentage of participation, and which have the highest scores.
The Leaderboard helps spark the competitive spirit between the players.

Earning that top spot is no easy feat!
The rules of the game are simple.

You have 60 seconds to answer as many questions as possible. %

Get a streak of correct answers to maximize your score. %

Bigger scores earn more entries in the draw. %
Ready, Set, Go! %
Your co-worker Phil forgot his ID/Access card and knows that you're going into a two-hour meeting. He asks to borrow your card. You:

REFUSE BECAUSE YOUR CARD IS FOR YOUR USE ONLY.

TELL PHIL TO ASK ANOTHER COLLEAGUE.

GIVE PHIL YOUR ID/ACCESS CARD AND GRAB IT WHEN YOU GET BACK.

Your next correct answer's worth:

| 1 | 2 | 5 | 10 | 20 | 40 | 60 | 100 |

This is a sample scenario. %

Read the question and answer as fast as you can. % Incorrect

Advise Phil to get a temporary pass from his manager/team leader.

CONTINUE

The clock stops while feedback is presented. %
Correct

Only department-issued USB keys are to be used for work purposes and plugged into work computers. This is the safest way to transport the information.

CONTINUE

More feedback... %